WRIT APPEAL NO.994 of 2006

JUDGMENT: (Per the Hon'ble Mr Justice B.Prakash Rao)

Heard both the sides and at their request, the Writ Appeal itself is taken up for disposal at the admission stage.

The petitioner is the unsuccessful writ petitioner, who sought to assail the order of his transfer from Ramagundam to Adoni.

The main ground urged on behalf of the petitioner is that having regard to the policy guidelines, the petitioner could not have been disturbed from his place. Even otherwise, having regard to the facts and circumstances, there is no such warrant to transfer him. The learned Single Judge did not accept the said contention because of the fact that the impugned action is that of transfer.

Having heard the learned counsel and on perusal of the material available on record, we are in entire agreement with the reasoning of the learned Single Judge. As rightly observed, this Court would not interfere with the transfer, which is an administrative exigency and the petitioner can focus the same by filing a representation.

Accordingly, the Writ Appeal is dismissed with liberty to the petitioner to file a representation within a period of one week from today before the respondents and the same shall be considered and disposed of on merits within a period of two weeks thereafter. Till such disposal of such representation, the petitioner shall not be disturbed from his place. No costs.
